

SHOW TUTORING

Confidential Report To the RVP of AIS Region 7

Apprentice judge _____
Show _____ Date _____
Location _____

Please rate the Apprentice Judge on the potentialities as demonstrated here by using E for Excellent, G for Good, F for Fair, P for Poor, and N for Not Observed.

1. Understanding of the basic principles for evaluation of irises on exhibition. _____
2. Ability to apply these basic principles. _____
3. Ability in judging Tall Bearded specimens. _____
4. Ability in judging other bearded specimens. _____
5. Ability in judging beardless specimens. _____
6. Ability in judging collections. _____
7. Ability in judging seedlings. _____
8. Knowledge of AIS Show Rules. _____
9. Knowledge of AIS Show Awards. _____
10. General knowledge of iris varieties and their individual characteristics. _____
11. Ethics involved in judging. _____
12. Understanding of the duties and responsibilities of judges. _____

In your honest opinion, do you feel that this apprentice would, if accredited as an AIS judge, be an asset to and a worthy representative of the American Iris Society? Yes _____ No _____

Can you recommend accreditation of this apprentice at this time? Yes _____ No _____

Remarks:

Signed: _____

Address: _____
